and
TEMPLE UNIVERSITY of The Commonwealth System of Higher Education
for
Associate in Arts in Communication Arts: Communication Studies Option
to
the Bachelor of Arts in Communication Studies: Communication & Entrepreneurship Track
(EFFECTIVE FALL 2018)

Delaware County Community College (DCCC) and Temple University (Temple) enter into this agreement in order to facilitate the transfer of students with an Associate in Arts in Communication Arts (Communication Studies Options) to the Bachelor of Arts in Communication Studies: Communication & Entrepreneurship Track in Temple's Klein College of Media & Communication.

Students who transfer to Temple with the Associate in Arts in Communication Arts (Communication Studies Options) from DCCC will be required to complete the 45+ GenEd requirements unless they have been certified as meeting the requirements for GenEd-to-GenEd as specified on page 4. Students who complete the DCCC curriculum specified on page 4 of this agreement are guaranteed the transfer credit for courses indicated in that section. Courses not listed there, but brought into Temple in transfer by a student covered by this agreement, will be granted credit according to standard Temple-Delaware County Community College equivalencies.

Students who complete the DCCC curriculum specified on page 4 of this agreement and the additional requirements specified on page 6 of this agreement will be able to complete the requirements for the Bachelor of Arts in Communication Studies: Communication & Entrepreneurship Track in four semesters by completing the Communication Arts coursework specified on page 6 and the remaining General Education requirements as a matriculated Temple University student, assuming all applicable Temple grade and other requirements are met to the satisfaction of Temple.

This agreement does not change the regular Temple policy that grants transfer credit to courses taken elsewhere only if they were completed with a grade of C or higher.

Students who transfer under the terms of this agreement are responsible for meeting requirements in their major field of study and any other curricular requirements applying to all Temple students that were in effect at Temple at the time of their matriculation to Temple. These students will abide by the policies and procedures, and any revisions thereof that apply to all Temple students.

This agreement does not cover students who transfer from Delaware County Community College to Temple without first completing the Associate in Arts in Communication Arts (Communication Studies Options).

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION TO TEMPLE

1. Students entering Temple under the terms of this agreement must meet all regular Temple admissions requirements and all applicable Temple requirements and deadlines pertaining to application for admission and payment of tuition and fees.
2. Because the Delaware County Community College Associate in Arts in Communication Arts (Communication Studies Options), is not covered by the GenEd to GenEd Transfer Agreement, students under this agreement must satisfy all the General Education requirements for the 45+ GenEd program not completed as part of the Associate in Arts in Communication Arts (Communication Studies Options) - to earn the B.A. in Communication Studies – Communication & Entrepreneurship Track.
3. Temple requires that all transfer courses are completed with a grade of C or higher. Consequently, Delaware County Community College courses equivalent to Temple courses, taken under the terms of this agreement, will receive transfer credit at Temple only if completed with a grade of C or higher.
4. Temple University requires that all undergraduate degree candidates complete 45 hours of the last 60 hours of the degree or program as matriculated students at Temple University. If a matriculated student previously took Temple courses on a non-matriculated basis, those courses are counted towards this requirement.

JOINT RESPONSIBILITIES FOR MAINTENANCE OF THIS AGREEMENT

Delaware County Community College will maintain and distribute information about the current form of this agreement, and any changes relevant to it, to students, counselors, advisors, and faculty.

Temple University's Klein College of Media & Communication will keep appropriate Temple offices and staff (including the Office of Undergraduate Studies and Admissions office) informed of this agreement and any modifications thereto, will post needed DARS exceptions specified in the agreement, and will be responsible for distributing information concerning any changes.

Both institutions will encourage Delaware County Community College students to meet with representatives of Temple University to discuss issues related to admissions and financial aid well in advance of their expected date of entry.

Faculty from each institution teaching in the curriculum for which this agreement has been developed will be encouraged to meet at least once annually to discuss issues of curriculum and student development.

Temple University and Delaware County Community College will collaborate when possible on research activities that will help assess the effectiveness of this transfer program in meeting the needs of students transferring from Delaware County Community College to Temple University.

REVISION, RENEWAL AND TERMINATION OF THIS AGREEMENT

The Dean's Office of Temple's Klein College of Media & Communication and Delaware County Community College Transfer Office are responsible for identifying, and communicating to each other, changes in their respective courses, requirements, or policies that affect this agreement.

This agreement will be in effect as of Fall 2018, will be reviewed annually by the Dean's Office of Temple's Klein College of Media & Communication and the Delaware County Community College Transfer Office, and will automatically be renewed until superseded by a new agreement or formally terminated. Revisions in the course equivalency lists may be made with the verbal consent of the representatives of the two schools; major revisions to this agreement require their signatures on a letter of agreement or a revised version of the agreement. All revisions, however, require that documentation is sent and approved by Temple's Office of Undergraduate Studies to ensure that updates are made to the appropriate systems in order to effectively implement this agreement. Either institution may terminate this agreement at any time by written notice at least one year in advance of the effective date of termination. Should this agreement be terminated, it is understood that the termination will not apply to students already accepted to Temple University under the terms of this agreement, but not yet enrolled in classes at Temple.

Delaware County Community College and Temple University understand that they shall act in an independent capacity in the performance of this agreement, and shall not be considered as employees, agents, affiliates, or subsidiaries of each other. Neither Temple nor Delaware County Community College have the right to bind or obligate one another in any manner inconsistent with or unrelated to this agreement. This agreement is governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Notes:

- 1) To ensure students are eligible to transfer under the terms to Temple's GenEd-to-GenEd agreement, they must complete a mathematics course equivalent to Temple's QA/QB level math. Courses at DCCC that satisfy this requirement include: MAT 120, MAT 151, 152, and MAT 160. Students who transfer without the recommended Mathematics courses will be required to complete Temple's 45+ General Education requirements and will require additional time to degree completion.
- 2) Students should select BUS 230: Principles of Marketing. BUS 230 transfers to Temple as MKTG 2101: Marketing Management. MKTG 2101 will be used to satisfy ADV 2111: Principles of Marketing via DARS exception. ADV 2111 satisfies a major requirement for the Communication Studies (Communication & Entrepreneur Track) at Temple.
- 3) Students should select COMM 200: Argumentation & Debate. COMM 200 transfers to Temple as CSI 2111: Argumentation & Advocacy and satisfies a major requirement.
- 4) Students should select COMM 201: Communication Theory. COMM 201 transfers to Temple as MSP 1011: Introduction to Media Theory and satisfies a major requirement.
- 5) To see how DCCC courses transfer to Temple, students should refer to Temple's Transfer Equivalency Tool: <http://admissions.temple.edu/transfer-equivalency-tool/>. Students should meet with a Transfer Advisor at DCCC to review which courses meet the 45+ General Education requirements.

If the suggested classes are successfully completed, and an Associate in Arts in Communication Arts, Communication Studies Option is awarded from DCCC, the remaining four semesters for the Bachelor of Arts in Communication Studies (Communication & Entrepreneur Track) degree are as follows:
